

Safety Representatives

Course Overview

The course is aimed at employees who will ultimately represent their colleagues at forums or safety committees. It will look at their responsibilities and the role and function of the committee. It will also look at the benefits of accident investigation and monitoring and auditing of health and safety.

Learning Outcomes

On completion of the course attendee's shall:-

- State their roles
- State the role & function of the committee
- Conduct a work place inspection
- Identify the sources of health and safety information
- Identify workplace hazards associated with their Business/Industry sector.
- Carry out accident investigations.

Who should attend?

Employees who will represent their colleagues at consultation forums and safety committees

Course Content

- Health & Safety Law
- The Legal system in the UK
- Accident Prevention
- The Health & Safety (Consultation with Employees) Regulations 1996
- Health and safety information
- Barriers to communication
- Risk Assessment
- Workplace Hazards
- Occupational health
- Health and safety auditing

Duration

3 days

Interested?....

Call our Training Co-ordinator, Lynda Stone on 01274 866 811 for further details/available dates/bookings etc.